Junior League of Memphis Recognizes 2016-2017 Volunteers of the Year

MEMPHIS, TENN. – June 1, 2017 – The Junior League of Memphis (JLM) has announced the winners of the 2016-2017 Volunteer of the Year Awards. These JLM members serve the Memphis area community through their yearly volunteer commitments and work tirelessly to assist the JLM's community projects as well as support the leadership teams.

Collectively, JLM members volunteer more than 30,000 hours each year to promote voluntarism, develop the potential of women and improve our community. The JLM continues to focus on neighborhood revitalization programming that emphasizes education, family strengthening and community pride in Binghampton, Berclair and Highland Heights.

"I am extremely proud of all of the Volunteers of the Year awardees," said Jennifer Taylor, President of the Junior League of Memphis. "Their dedication, support and willingness to move the JLM mission forward is inspiring."
