FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Junior League of Memphis Hosts Antiques on the Lawn Sale

MEMPHIS, TENN. – September 26, 2017 – This Saturday, Sept. 30, the Junior League of Memphis will hold a special “Antiques on the Lawn Sale” at the Community Resource Center benefitting the Repeat Boutique – an idea that was sparked by a generous donation from the Moore family.

Since the early 1940s, the Repeat Boutique thrift shop has remained in continuous operation by the Junior League of Memphis (JLM), one of the largest volunteer groups in the Midsouth. Aligning with the mission of the JLM to improve the Memphis community, the Repeat Boutique offers affordable clothing and housewares and reinvests the proceeds from their sales into services, projects and programs that impact the community.

For the Antiques on the Lawn sale, the Moore family has donated fine furniture, china, crystal, rugs, collectables, artwork, cookware, glassware, porcelain, decorative objects and other small houseware items. Most of the inventory, however, comes directly from Junior League members.

The regular stock at the Summer Avenue store includes gently used clothing, shoes and accessories for all ages, small home furnishings, housewares and children's items. Some of the women's items vary from casual wear to formal wear and include wedding dresses.

The sale starts at 9 a.m. on Saturday at the Junior League Community Resource Center, 3475 Central Ave.

About the Junior League of Memphis

The Junior League of Memphis (JLM) is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. As one of the largest volunteer groups in the Mid-South, the JLM is committed to revitalizing neighborhoods in and around Memphis through the development of, and participation in, programs that positively impact the environments where people live, work and play.
