Erin Brockovich to Deliver Keynote Address

MEMPHIS, TENN. – Feb. 7, 2018 – Erin Brockovich will be the keynote speaker for the third annual Memphis Women's Summit. The Summit, hosted by the Junior League of Memphis, is a community-focused, leadership conference for women. The Summit will help women develop professionally and personally while enhancing community leadership skills.

In addition to the keynote address, this one-day event includes breakout sessions with local leaders, vendor booths focused on women's issues and interests and a dynamic luncheon discussion about the MLK50 celebration, "Where Do We Go from Here?" Breakout sessions will be organized around work experience and the following four track areas: Leaders of Tomorrow, Entering the Workforce, Emerging Leader and Established Leader.

Leaders of Tomorrow is geared toward juniors and seniors in college and will provide insights on making the transition from college to the workforce. Entering the Workforce will help those in the first few years of their career position themselves for success and build leadership skills. The Established Leaders track is designed for those who have reached a pinnacle in their career and will address topics such as seizing new opportunities and helping other women succeed.

The Memphis Women's Summit will take place on March 22, 2018 from 9 a.m. -5 p.m. at the University of Memphis – University Center & Michael D. Rose Theatre. Tickets are $135 until Feb. 22 and $150 after Feb. 22. To purchase tickets, become a sponsor or vendor, or to learn more about the event, visit <http://www.memphiswomenssummit.org/>.
