FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Junior League of Memphis Announces 2014-2015 Board of Directors

Memphis, Tenn. – June 10, 2014 – The Junior League of Memphis (JLM) announced its Board of Directors for the upcoming year. The Board will lead operations for JLM, one of Memphis' largest volunteer organizations with more than 1,600 members. On average, these volunteers donate more than 30,000 hours of community service annually to impact change in our community in areas such as literacy, health and neighborhood revitalization. Since its founding in 1922, JLM has helped to start and contributed to some of Memphis' most worthwhile organizations, including Hope House, the Church Health Center and the Pink Palace Museum. The 2014-2015 Board will continue to lead JLM in such endeavors. The Board members are:
