Memphis, TN – February 7, 2014 – The Junior League of Memphis (JLM) will host its second annual Estate Sale Saturday, March 22 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Junior League of Memphis Community Resource Center, 3475 Central Ave.

New and antique furniture, artwork, china, kitchen appliances, electronics, home décor pieces, chandeliers, rugs and draperies will be among the wide selection of stylish offerings. And admission is free.

This year, shoppers are invited to a preview party Thursday, March 20 from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Community Resource Center for an exclusive preview of the merchandise and an early opportunity to purchase items.

The party will include hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and a live band, as well as a Trash to Treasure silent auction contest, featuring pieces that have been revamped into treasures for the home.

Tickets to the preview party are $20 in advance; $25 at the door. Click here to download an item entry form/contest rules for the Trash to Treasure Silent Auction contest.

The revenue from the estate sale and preview event directly supports the mission of the JLM to help women and children in need throughout the Memphis and Mid-South community.

“Within our city, we have a wide range of collecting interests, from decorative art to figurines to classic furniture and appliances, and all of them will be well represented in the sale,” said 2013 – 2014 JLM President Stephanie Simpson. “Now in its second year, the estate sale is quickly becoming a rewarding tradition that we all anticipate. This year, the sale is slated to be bigger and better, and we are excited to host a fabulous event that simultaneously serves the public and benefits the community.”
